

City of Brentwood Volunteer Interest Form

Committed volunteers play an important part in shaping Brentwood's future. Commission members assist the Board of Aldermen and the City Administration in developing policies and services that reflect the needs and values of the entire Brentwood community. As a member of a City committee, you serve as a respected community advisor to the Board of Aldermen and the City Administration.

While volunteer involvement requires time and effort, it also provides an opportunity for genuine public service. In addition, you gain knowledge about the role of City government and its daily operations.

If you are interested in joining other Brentwood citizens serving as volunteer commission and committee members, please complete this volunteer interest profile sheet and submit the sheet, along with a resume or bio, to the following address:

Office of the Mayor
City of Brentwood
2348 S. Brentwood Boulevard
Brentwood, MO 63144
Email: ddimmitt@brentwoodmo.org

Questions about the purpose or commitment required for any of the commissions can be directed to Office of the City Administrator, 314.963.8608 or bakande@brentwoodmo.org.

I am interested in serving on the following committee(s):

Architectural Review Board

Planning & Zoning Commission

Board of Adjustment

Sustainability Commission

Brentwood Library Board

TIF Commission

Brentwood Redevelopment Corporation
